

I vehemently oppose Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation and FCC as guardians of the public trust in the use of public airwaves should not turn a blind eye to this abuse of power.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
